

Show built-in users in Server

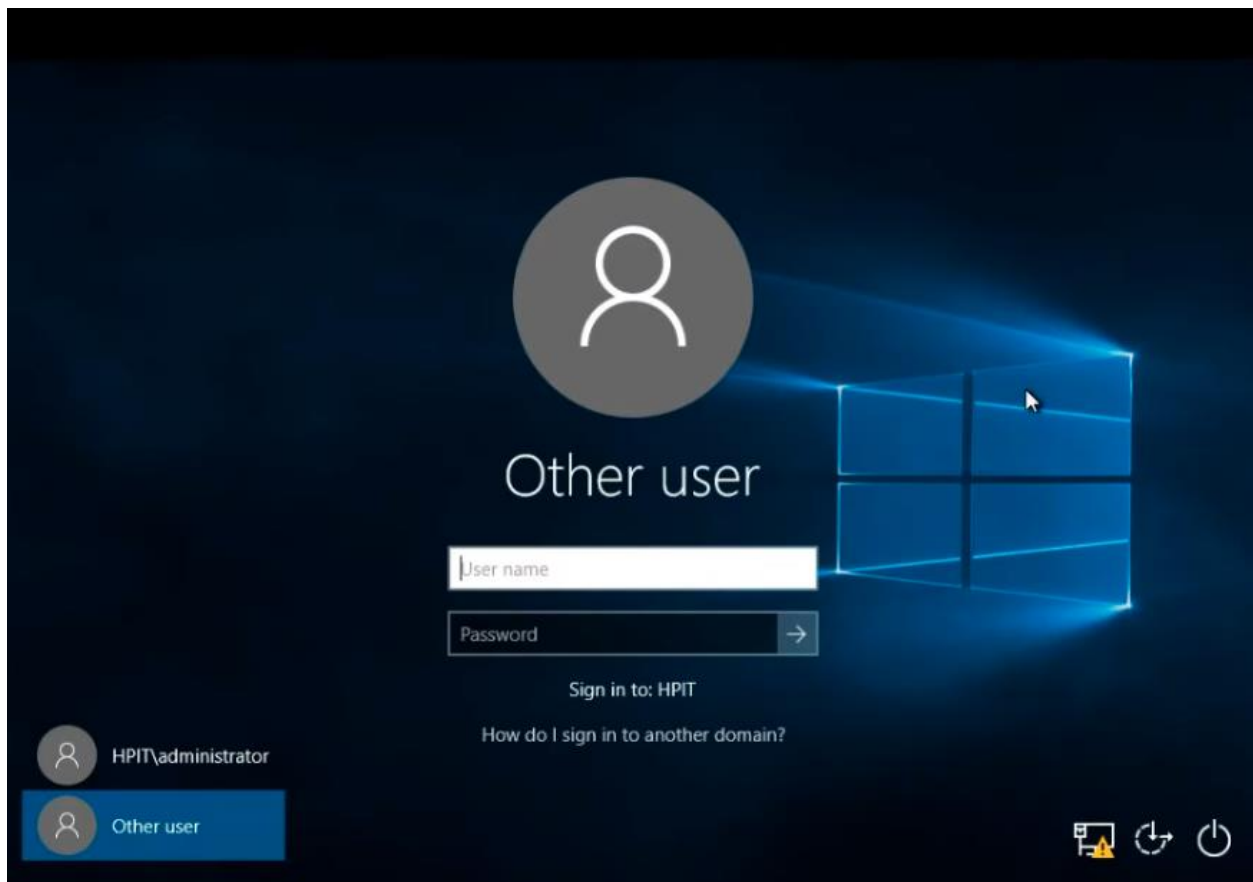

Steps for user creation

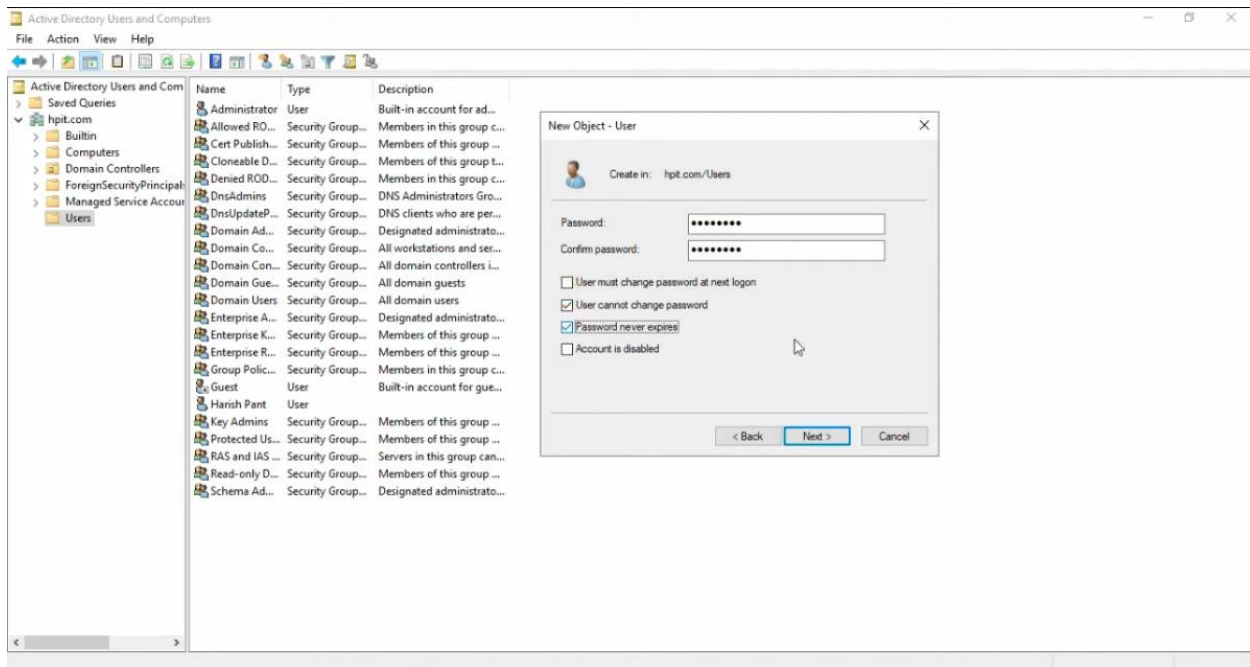

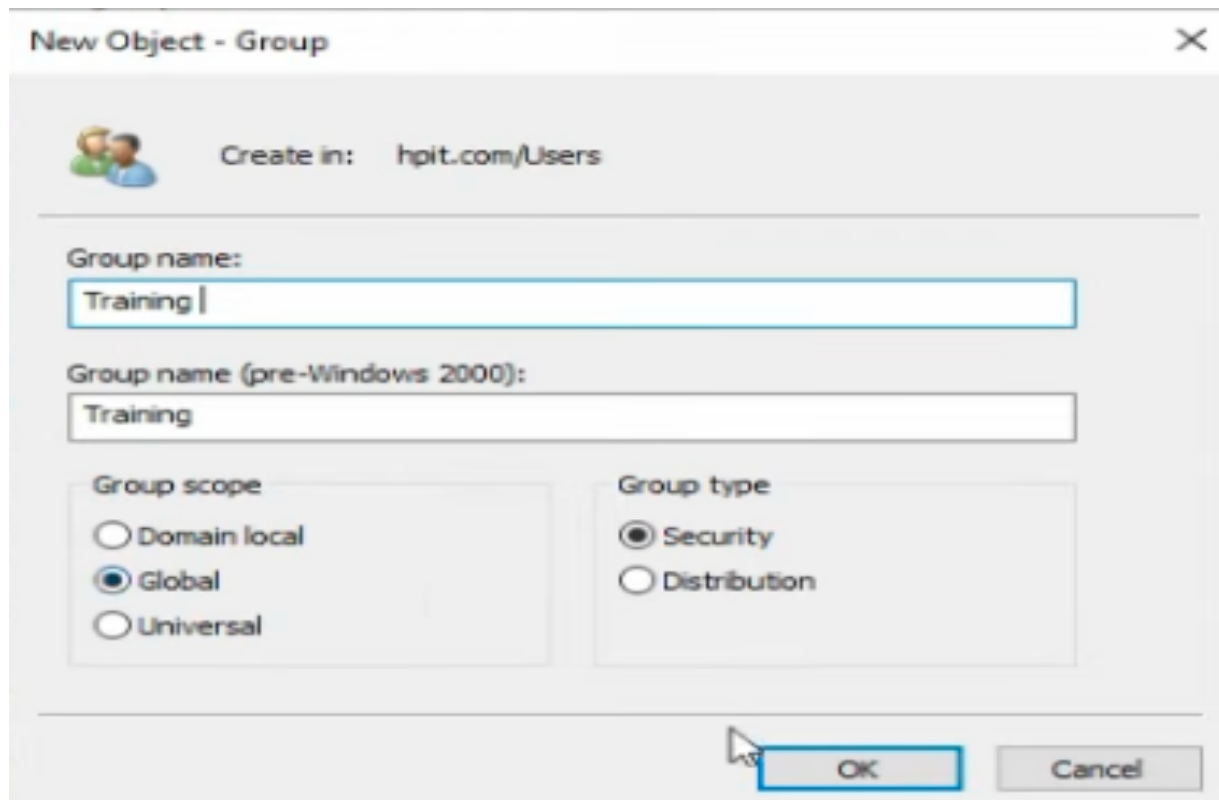

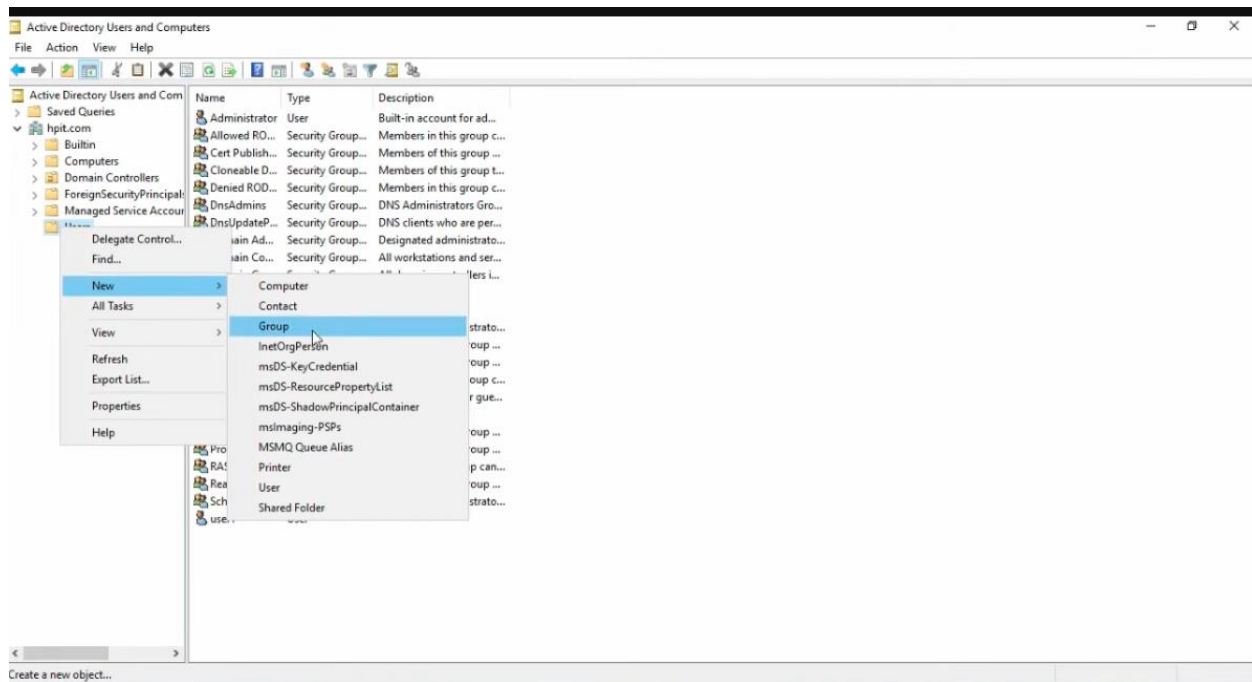

After complete the form goto the windows 10 and logon there

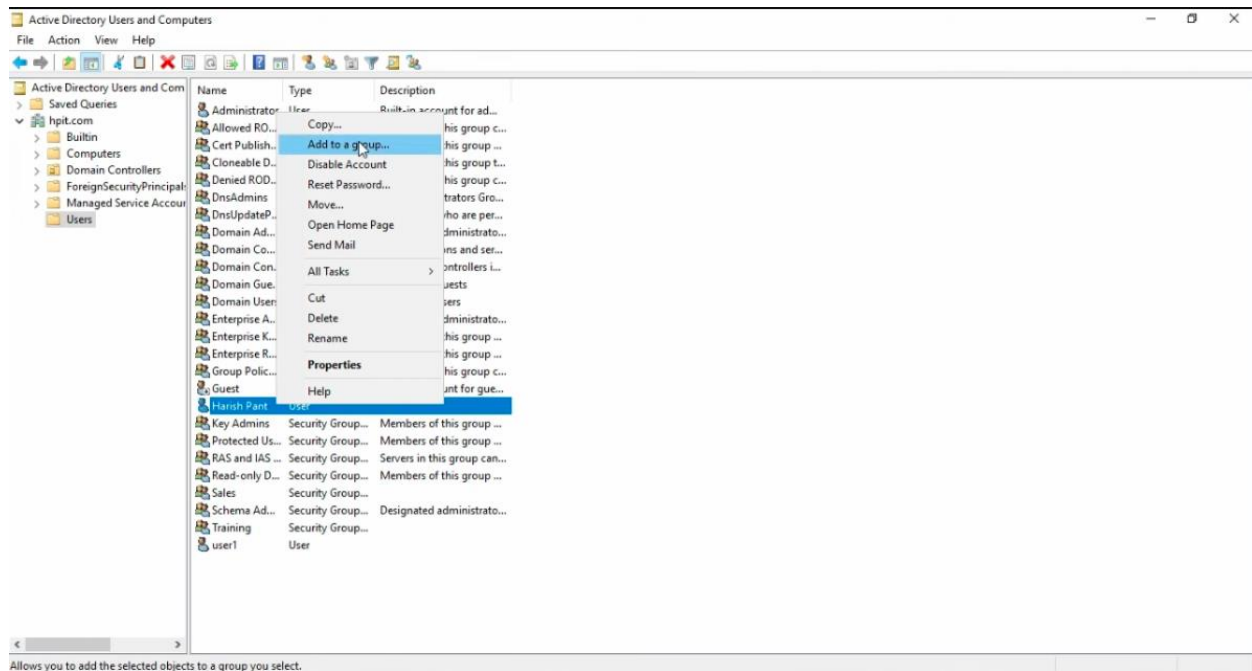

After that goto again server and create the new user with now these new two settings

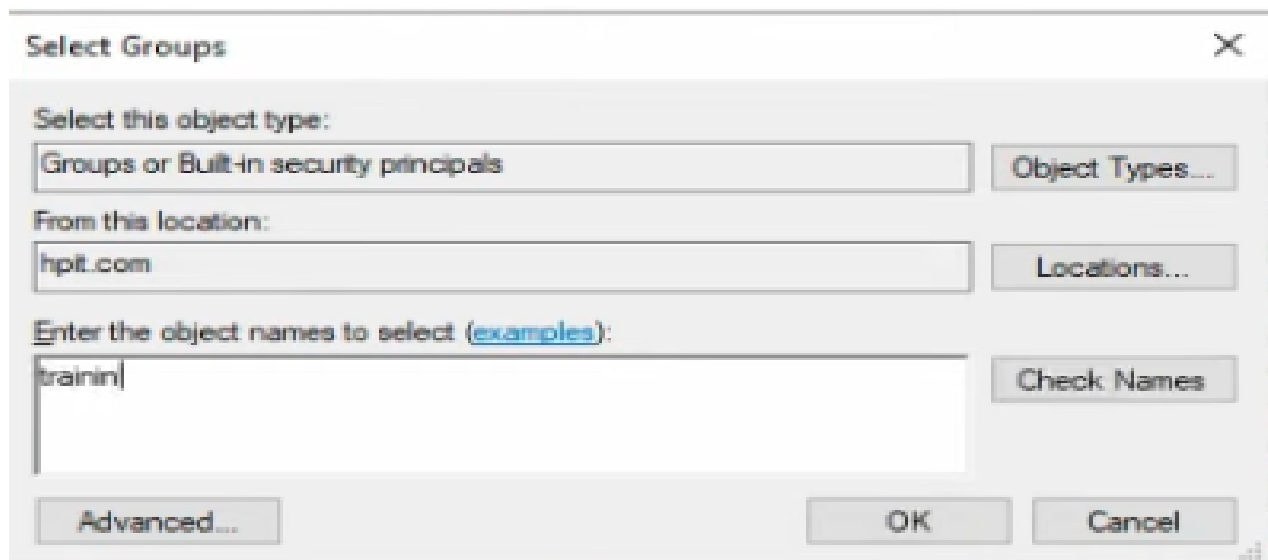

Now next create the Group account and management

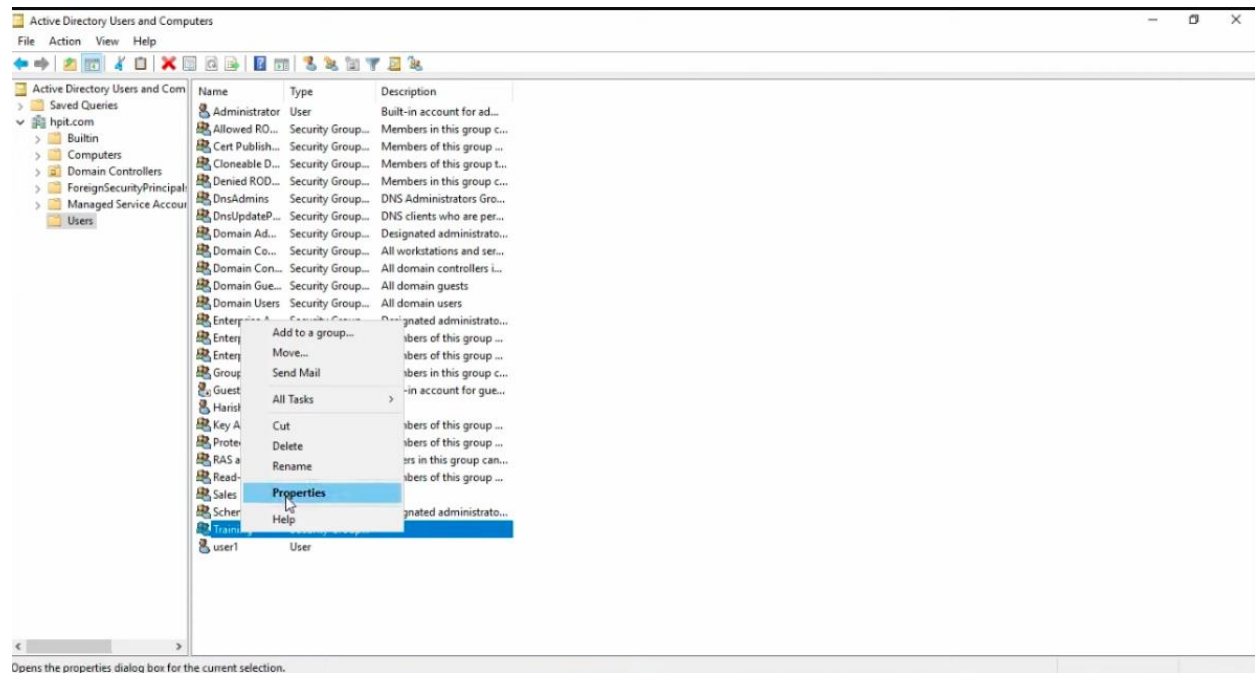

Now add user to the group

In the below form type your group name and click check name

For verification goto

In the opened wizard click on Members and all added users show